U.S. Catholic Colleges and Universities : “Renaming, Removing, Revoking, Remembering”

September 2020

Loras College removed statue of its founder, Bishop Mathias Loras, a slave-owner (will not change the name of the college) -- same person for whom our Loras Hall is named after.

(<https://myweb.loras.edu/loras/FounderResearch.pdf> )

July 2020

Loyola University Maryland renamed Flannery O’Connor Residence Hall. “Some of her personal writings reflected a racist perspective.” <https://www.loyola.edu/departments/equity-inclusion/about/message-archive/072420-holding-ourselves-accountable>

February 2020

University of Notre Dame revoked the Notre Dame Award conferred upon Jean Vanier in 1994 after allegations that he sexually exploited six women. <https://news.nd.edu/news/statement-from-rev-john-i-jenkins-c-s-c-president-university-of-notre-dame-2/>

April 2019

Franciscan University Stubenville (OH), removed plaque honoring the memory of Fr. Sam Tiesi, a priest working on campus, after a report came out verifying his sexual abuse of students from 1978-1992.

<https://www.ncronline.org/news/accountability/plaques-removal-franciscan-university-exposes-abuse-former-chaplain>

August/September 2018

University of Scranton (PA) removed the names of three bishops from buildings (Jerome Hannan, J. Carroll McCormick, and James Timlin) and revoked their honorary degrees. These bishops systemically concealed decades of sexual abuse by priests in the diocese.

<https://news.scranton.edu/articles/2018/08/news-university-response-grand-jury-report.shtml>

King's College (PA) removed McCormick's name from a building and rescinded his honorary degree as well as the degree awarded to Timlin. <https://www.wnep.com/article/news/local/luzerne-county/bishops-name-to-be-removed-from-kings-college-building/523-8e4175ec-0124-4655-ab7a-40ed1606a611>

Marywood University (PA) rescinded an honorary doctorate and a presidential medal awarded to Timlin.

<https://www.pahomepage.com/news/marywood-university-votes-to-rescind-bishop-timlins-honorary-doctorate/>

Marquette University removed the name of the Fr. Robert Wild, its former president, from a residence hall for his mishandling of sexual abuse cases. <https://marquettewire.org/3994898/news/breaking-wild-hall-renamed-the-commons-after-fr-wild-requests-his-name-be-removed/>

Siena College (NY) revoked honorary degree from Cardinal Theodore McCarrick (<https://www.siena.edu/news/story/honorary-degree-rescinded/>) as did Catholic University of America (DC) (<https://communications.catholic.edu/news/2018/07/statement-on-most-reverend-theodore-mccarrick.html>) because of his history of sexually abuse.

April 2017

Georgetown renamed a building for Isaac Hawkins, one of 272 enslaved in the 1838 sale of slaves.

(<https://www.georgetown.edu/news/georgetown-to-rename-building-for-isaac-hawkins-one-of-272-enslaved-in-1838-sale/>)

Stanford partially removed the name of the Catholic saint, Junipero Serra, from its campus, taking his name off a mall space and a dorm while keeping his name on the street through campus. See their explanation <https://news.stanford.edu/2018/09/13/naming-report-faq/>.)
