245 Classical Mythology

Mythology is the embodiment and encoding of the beliefs, principles, and aspirations of ancient cultures. This course provides an interdisciplinary introduction to mythology as an introduction and foundation to Classical civilization. Myths will be examined from a variety of perspectives, including the study of literature in translation, art historical, religion, and history.

397 Topics

The subject matter of the course, announced in the annual Class Schedule, will vary but will not duplicate existing courses.

480 Senior Paper

0 credit

During the senior year or earlier majors are expected to write a major research paper with an abstract and to describe the results of their research in a short oral presentation to a panel of faculty. Normally this requirement is accomplished by rewriting and submitting a paper from one of the major field courses. The topic should be chosen in consultation with the program director and should be completed no later than 6 weeks prior to graduation. Papers will be presented to students and faculty at least annually at a symposium.

East Asian Studies

Foy (ENGL), adviser

This major and minor is offered by the Associated Colleges of the Twin Cities (ACTC). The purpose of this program is to enable students to acquire a broad interdisciplinary understanding of East Asia, which includes knowledge of an East Asian language, and specialization in upper-division courses.

Major in East Asian Studies

A major in East Asian studies consists of 36 credits which must include:

- sixteen credits in an East Asian language
- sixteen credits in East Asian studies (with a minimum of eight credits in upper-division courses)
- one East Asian studies seminar

Note: Courses that satisfy these requirements are published annually in The ACTC Joint Class Schedule. Each student should develop a plan of studies with the faculty adviser.

Minor in East Asian Studies

Eight credits in East Asian language courses

Plus:

Twelve credits in East Asian studies courses from the annual list of courses that satisfy the requirement
See the faculty adviser.
