East Asian Studies

Hwa (HIST), adviser

East Asian Studies is an ACTC (Associated Colleges of the Twin Cities) interdisciplinary program that studies the history, culture, and languages of East Asian countries. Students may pursue a concentration on a specific country, in business, education, media/journalism, humanities, or the social sciences of the region. Concentrations may be determined in consultation with the East Asian Studies adviser.

Major in East Asian Studies

A major in East Asian Studies consists of 36 credits which must include:

- sixteen credits in an East Asian language
(languages not offered at ACTC institutions may be available at the University of Minnesota)
- sixteen credits in East Asian studies (with a minimum of eight credits in upper-division courses)
 - eight credits in history
 - four credits in philosophy/religion/arts/literature
 - four elective credits in an East Asian course, or a course with some East Asian content
 - four credits in an East Asian studies seminar

Minor in East Asian Studies

A minor in East Asian Studies consists of 20 credits which include:

- eight credits in East Asian language courses
(with the consent of the adviser, some language courses may be waived, but the total number of credits in the minor remains the same)
- twelve credits in East Asian studies (with a minimum of four credits in upper division courses)
 - four credits in history
 - four credits in philosophy/religion/arts/literature
 - four credits in an East Asian course, or a course with some East Asian content
