▪ Undergraduate course(s) for graduate credit

Up to two electives may be fulfilled by undergraduate courses (300-level and above) taken for graduate credit. Additional work, arranged between the student and instructor, is required to obtain graduate credit.

Students may choose from courses offered in a variety of departments. For other departments, see www.stthomas.edu/classes. To enroll in an undergraduate course, please complete a course application form, to be completed by you and the instructor. Enrollment is contingent upon the approval of both the director of graduate studies and the course instructor.

▪ Graduate course(s) in other UST departments

Students may take courses in other graduate departments for elective credit if they are compatible with the graduate Catholic Studies program. You should first request authorization from the director of graduate studies and then consult the professor offering the course. Enrollment in the course is up to the discretion of the professor.

Important information for all students

- The Graduate Catholic Studies office will register you for courses based on the information provided on this form. Prior to the start of classes, you may check your registration and other information by accessing the MURPHY online system by going to <http://www.stthomas.edu> then to the Tools drop down menu. New students will need to activate their accounts before gaining access to Murphy which will take place at the orientation session prior to the beginning of the semester.
- Your MURPHY access only allows you to review your registration information. If you wish to make changes to your registration, contact the program office at (651) 962-5703.
- Do not phone in your registration. Please send completed registration form to:
 University of St. Thomas
 Graduate Catholic Studies Office, Mail 55S
 2115 Summit Ave.
 St. Paul, MN 55105-1096

For non-degree-seeking students only (please read and sign below)

I understand that I may take up to two courses as a non-degree-seeking student. I know that I may later apply for degree-seeking status at one of the regular admissions deadlines if all admission criteria for degree-seeking status are fulfilled. If admitted to the program at degree-seeking status, I may apply courses taken at non-degree status toward my graduate degree (provided that I received a grade of "B" or better in each class).

For audit students only (please read and sign below)

I understand that as an audit student I will not receive any degree credit. If attendance is satisfactory, the course number, title and audit designation will appear on the transcript. If attendance is not satisfactory, the audit course will not appear on the transcript. In no case may I receive credit for a course that was audited unless the course is retaken for credit.
