

CURRICULUM VITAE

NAME: Carl Winston Chrislock

POSITION: Professor of History since 1991, University of St. Thomas, St. Paul Minnesota

TEACHING FIELDS: East Central Europe since 1700; Modern Europe; Slavic Immigration to the United States; American Foreign Policy; Czech Literature

RESEARCH FIELDS: Czech Immigration to the United States; Czech Political History

EDUCATION: Ph.D., Indiana University, 1971; M.A., Indiana University, 1964; B.A., University of Minnesota, 1962, all in history

PUBLICATIONS: "Cleveland Czechs" in Identity, Conflict, & Cooperation: Central Europeans in Cleveland, 1850-1930, pp. 77-134. David C. Hammack, Diane L. Grabowski, John J. Grabowski, editors. Cleveland: Western Reserve Historical Society, 2003. Charles Jonas: Czech National Liberal: Wisconsin Bourbon Democrat. Philadelphia: Balch Institute and Associated University Presses, 1993. "The Czechs" in They Chose Minnesota. June Holmquist, editor. St. Paul: Minnesota Historical Society, 1981.

FORTHCOMING: Editor and translator of Frank Vlcek's Povidka meho zivota (My Life Story). Kent State University Press, 2004.

HONORS AND AWARDS: Fulbright Research Award to Czechoslovakia, 1986-1987; NEH Seminar for College Teachers, at UCLA, 1975-1976; Woodrow Wilson Graduate Fellowship, 1962-1963; Member Phi Beta Kappa; Departmental Scholar, History Department, University of Minnesota, 1961

EXPERIENCE: Associate Professor, University of St. Thomas, 1979-1991 and Assistant Professor of History, College of St. Thomas 1972-1979; Assistant Professor of History, California University Northridge, 1968-1974; Instructor, Augsburg College, Spring, 1964

RELATED EXPERIENCE: Consultant for the visit of President Vaclav Havel to St. Paul, Minnesota, April 1998; Consultant for the visit of Alexander Dubcek, Chairman of the Czechoslovak Parliament, to Minnesota, September 1990; AP Reader, ETS, 1985; Grant Evaluator, HEW, Fund for Post-Secondary Education, 1977; Film Actor "Nebesti Jezdci" (Sky Riders), Barrondov Studios, Prague, Czechoslovakia, 1968