

The Community Justice Project, Federalist Society, Asian Law Student Association, Black Law Student Association, Criminal Law Society, and Health Law Society present

INFORMED & ENGAGED:

CIVIL RIGHTS, SOCIAL JUSTICE, & THE 2008 ELECTIONS

Wednesday, October 22, 2008

4:00 - 6:00 p.m.

University of St. Thomas School of Law Atrium

Want to know how the 2008 Presidential Candidates view issues that will affect you and your community?

Then join us for an evening of debate, dialogue and education. This event will feature four distinguished panelists who will discuss the candidates' views on: Education, Criminal Justice, Voting Rights, Health Care, and Poverty.

Featured Panelists:

Barbara Arnwine, Executive Director of the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights under Law

Professor Thomas Berg, University of St. Thomas School of Law

Professor Mahmoud El-Kati, Macalester College

Professor David Schultz, Hamline University School of Business

Reception to follow

CLE credit applied for

Please register for this free event at www.stthomas.edu/law/rsvp. For more information contact the Interprofessional Center at 651-962-4960.

