Publication Information: The University of St. Thomas Law Journal is published three times a year by law students at the University of St. Thomas School of Law in Minneapolis, Minnesota 55403-2015. It is printed by Joe Christensen, Inc., Lincoln, Nebraska 68521.

Mission: The University of St. Thomas Law Journal, as a publication of a Catholic law school, is committed to encouraging ethical legal thinking through the publication of compelling legal scholarship dedicated to the discussion of morality and social justice, developing students' legal research and writing skills in an endeavor to produce accomplished servant leaders in the practice of law, and broadening the legal imagination to cultivate creative solutions to real world problems with a goal toward social change.

Subscription Information: Single issues are available for $20.00. Subscriptions are $50.00 per volume domestic, and $100.00 per volume foreign. Unless the Journal receives notification of cancellation, subscriptions will be renewed annually.

Please send all change of address information, single issue and subscription inquiries, and cancellation notices to the address below.

Submission Guidelines: The University of St. Thomas Law Journal is currently a symposium-based law review. Unsolicited articles may be considered for publication, but cannot be returned. All submissions should be double-spaced and conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation. If selected for publication, all citations will be made to conform to The Bluebook.

Please send all submissions to the address below. The Journal accepts submissions by e-mail.

Citation information: Please cite this issue as: 5 U. St. Thomas L.J. 3 (2008). All citation generally conforms to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation unless otherwise noted.

Copyright Information: Unless otherwise noted, any material to which the University of St. Thomas Law Journal holds the copyright may be reproduced, in whole or in part, by non-profit institutions for educational purposes, provided that (1) copies are distributed at or below cost; (2) the author and the University of St. Thomas Law Journal are identified, including the volume number, the page on which the article starts, and the year of publication; (3) proper notice of copyright is affixed to each copy; and (4) notice of use is given to the University of St. Thomas Law Journal.
