

College of Arts and Sciences

CHALLENGE YOURSELF
CHANGE OUR WORLD

UNIVERSITY of ST. THOMAS
MINNESOTA

UST Mission

Inspired by Catholic intellectual tradition, the University of St. Thomas educates students to be morally responsible leaders who think critically, act wisely, and work skillfully to advance the common good.

Math Student Appreciation Day

Twelfth November 2007
Three o'clock
Owens Science Hall 150

Welcome

Department of Mathematics website
<http://www.stthomas.edu/mathematics/>

Math and Actuarial Science Club Officers

President	Kevin Landwehr
Vice President	Trevor Soupir
Secretary	Shauna Thompson
Treasurer	Tim Mullee
Webmaster	Allison Liebl

GEMS Camp 2007 Assistants

Molly Leonard and Fiona Lodge

MaRC Tutor Leaders

Jake Maida
Van Chounlamountry
Jenny Lahr
Katie McCaffrey
Nate Greiner

Following the Program

Please join us in the lobby for refreshments and conversation.
- pizza, cookies, and soft drinks -

Event Schedule

Faculty Welcome and Opening Remarks
by Dr. John Kemper

Student Welcome and Introduction of First Student Researcher
by Allison Liebl, Club Webmaster

“Analysis of HIV/AIDS Mortality Data in Minnesota”
by Megan Frericks
Co-researchers: Anna Meyer and Jennifer Woychik
Research with Dr. Arkady Shemyakin

Recognition of Math and Actuarial Science Club
Officers and GEMS Camp 2007 Assistants
by Dr. Lisa Rezac

Actuarial Science Program Acknowledgements
by Dr. Heekyung Youn

Presentation of Math Resource Center (MaRC) Service Awards
by Brenda Tiefenbruck, MaRC Director

Introduction of Second Student Researcher by Kevin Landwehr, Club President

“Denoising Via Wavelet Transformations” by Katherine (Katie) McCaffrey
Research with Dr. Pat Van Fleet

Presentation of the Center for Applied Mathematics
(CAM) Research Award
by Dr. Pat Van Fleet, CAM Director

Closing Remarks
by Dr. John Kemper, Chair