REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREE

*To major in French, the completion of Intermediate French II or its equivalent.

*Each prospective major will present a program to the major French adviser for departmental approval.

*Two tracks are allowed: 1) A literary track stressing courses needed for graduate study 2) A general track stressing the cultural and communication skills necessary for double, combined or co-career majors.

*A minimum of 28 credits beyond 212 is required for a French major. At least 12 out of 28 credits must be completed at the University of St. Thomas. The major normally consists of a minimum of:
   - 8 credits in Civilization or Culture
   - 8 credits in Literature
   - 8 credits in Advanced Language Study (Grammar, Composition or Oral-intensive)
   - Elective courses at the 300-level or beyond.

*Courses in a second foreign language are highly recommended.

*The department strongly encourages all students planning a major in French to spend some time (a summer, a January term, a semester or academic year) in a French-speaking country and to participate in a French course on campus upon their return.

Note: Students majoring or minoring in French are not able to study abroad until they have completed FREN 300.
