OFFICE HOURS

Professors Rockwell and Provo will often be available before and after class period and also by appointment. Students should feel free to email and call either of the Professors with questions, concerns, etc.

COURSE TIME AND PLACE

Tuesdays and Thursdays 4:30 p.m. to 5:55, Room 235.

COURSE GRADE

Final grades will be based predominantly on a final exam. However, class attendance and participation will affect the grading for the course. Consistent attendance, preparedness and willingness to actively participate in class discussions can increase the final grade up to one full grade level. Less than consistent attendance, lack of preparation and meaningful participation may result in the lowering of a final grade, up to one full grade.

INCOMPLETE GRADES

If a student is unable to complete the course requirements, please make arrangements with the instructor prior to the final day of class. The "incomplete policy" of the University of St. Thomas School of Law will be followed.

POLICY ON DISABILITIES

A student with a disability which affects his/her participation in the course may notify the instructors if he/she wishes to have special accommodations to the instructional format, examination format, etc., considered. The instructor may refer the student to the Dean of Students for assistance with these accommodations.

LATE REGISTRATIONS

If you are not on the class list, you must see the Registrar for admission to the class.

ATTENDANCE

Attendance is expected at every class. If you are unable to attend a class, you must inform one of the Professors in advance of the class that you cannot attend. Attendance sign-in sheets will be provided at every class.

HANDOUTS

Handouts may be provided for classes. We will post any handouts on Blackboard after any class where circulated.

GUEST LECTURERS

While most of the course will be taught by Professors Rockwell and Provo, there may be appearances by some guest lecturers. The professors will obtain materials of guest speakers, if any, as soon before their classes as possible.
