Looking for a medium walk? Check out the surrounding neighborhoods by going through the Arches that are symbolic to the University of St. Thomas and wander down Summit Avenue, the largest stretch of Victorian houses in the nation. After you go north on Fairview and head West on Marshall, you can stop at Trotter’s Café and Kopplin’s for some coffee and freshly baked goods.