

National and Regional Competitive Fellowships For Graduating Seniors and Graduate Students

These scholarships are constantly changing the deadlines, amount of awards and eligibility requirements. It is important to check websites for the most current information.

Alliance for Catholic Education

The University of Notre Dame's Alliance for Catholic Education (ACE) seeks to develop a corps of highly motivated and committed young educators to meet the needs of our country's most under-served elementary and secondary schools. Upon completion of two years in the ACE program, participants will have fulfilled the requirements for a Masters in Education degree.

Amount of Award: In addition to a fully funded graduate program, ACE participants receive a modest monthly stipend, medical insurance, travel reimbursement and an annual educational award of $4,725 from the Corporation for National Service.

Eligibility: Completion of a baccalaureate degree in a major field that lends itself to being taught at the elementary and/or secondary level, and an interest in teaching in a Catholic school at that level.

Application Deadline: The application deadline is usually in the last week of February. Awards are announced in mid-March.

Website: <http://ace.nd.edu>

No UST contact.

British Marshall Scholarships

British Marshall Scholarships finance young Americans of high ability to study for two years in the United Kingdom in a system of higher education recognized for its excellence.

Amount of Award: University fees, cost of living expenses, annual book grant, thesis grant, research and daily travel grants, fares to and from the United States and, where applicable, a contribution towards the support of a dependent spouse.

Eligibility: By the time the scholarship begins, the candidate must hold a first degree from an accredited four-year college or university in the U.S. The candidate must have obtained a GPA of not less than 3.7 on undergraduate degree.

Application Deadline: All applications are now done online. The deadline is in early October each year; check the website, as the exact date changes from year to year. Awards are announced in December. Note: St. Thomas' internal deadline for applying for the required institutional endorsement is two weeks before the scholarship deadline. It is recommended that you make arrangements with the St. Thomas contact by September 7 at the latest.

Website: <http://www.marshallscholarship.org>

UST Contact: Dr. William Cavanaugh, email: wtcavanaugh@stthomas.edu

Davies-Jackson Scholarship

Established in 1990, the Davies-Jackson Scholarship provides a unique opportunity for graduating college seniors with exceptional academic records, and who are among the first in their families to graduate from college, to participate in a course of study at St. John's College. It is a full two-year scholarship valued at approximately $50,000. Funded by an anonymous donor who wishes to provide the same opportunities at St. John's that he was afforded as a young man, the scholarship has been offered annually since 1996 and is administered by the Council of Independent Colleges.

Applications are accepted for study in the following subjects: Archaeology and Anthropology; Classics; Economics; English; Geography; History; History of Art; Modern and Medieval Languages; Music; Philosophy; and Social and Political Sciences.

The deadline for applications for the fall 2009 scholarship is November 14, 2008. Applications are reviewed by a ten-person U.S. Selection Committee, chaired by A. Graham Down. In December, the most promising applications are forwarded to Cambridge to be reviewed by admissions tutors of the respective subject matter. Should an applicant be selected for admission he or she will be contacted by Cambridge University officials in January 2009.

More information about the scholarship as well as the application materials can be found online at http://www.cic.edu/projects_services/grants/daviesjackson/index.asp. If you have any questions or comments about the Davies-Jackson Scholarship, please contact Stephen Gibson, CIC's director of projects, at sgibson@cic.nche.edu or (202) 466-7230.

UST Contact: Dr. Michael C. Jordan, email: mcjordan@stthomas.edu

Delta Epsilon Sigma Fellowship

Delta Epsilon Sigma sponsors an annual fellowship competition for its members. Senior-year members may apply for Fitzgerald Fellowships at $1,000 each to be applied towards tuition costs for first-year graduate work. The fellowships are named after the founder and first Secretary-Treasurer of DES, The Most Rev. Edward A. Fitzgerald of Loras College, Dubuque, Iowa. The awards will be made available on a competitive basis to students who have been initiated into the society and who have also been nominated by their chapters for the competition.

UST Contact: Dr. Michael C. Jordan, email: mcjordan@stthomas.edu
(Updated March 2008)

Ford Foundation Diversity Fellowships

The Ford Foundation Diversity Fellowships seek to increase the diversity of the nation's college and university faculties by increasing their ethnic and racial diversity, to maximize the educational benefits of diversity, and to increase the number of professors who can and will use diversity as a resource for enriching the education of all students. To facilitate this goal, the Fellowship grants awards at the Pre-doctoral, Dissertation, and Post-doctoral levels to students who demonstrate excellence, a commitment to diversity and a desire to enter the professoriate.

Amount of Award:

- Predoctoral Awards at $20,000 per year for up to three years.
- Dissertation Awards at $21,000 for one year.
- Postdoctoral Awards at $40,000 for one year.

Eligibility: All citizens or nationals of the U.S. They must be planning a career in teaching and research at the college or university level and provide evidence of superior academic achievement.

Application Deadline: Applications for all programs are due in late November. Awards are announced in early April.

Website: www.national-academies.org/fellowships or <http://www7.nationalacademies.org/fellowships/>

UST Contact: Sr. Sharon Howell, email: smhowell@stthomas.edu

Fulbright Grants

The Fulbright Grant offers the opportunity to do graduate-level research or course work in one country for one year. The proposal must be something that cannot be done in the United States.

Amount of Award: Awards include travel grants, full one-year research grants, and teaching assistantships. Full grants fund airfare, tuition, living stipend, books, language orientation course (if needed), and insurance.

Eligibility: Applicants must be U.S. citizens with a Bachelor's degree and the ability to carry through the proposal.

Application Deadline: Applications are due by October 1 to the UST International Education Center. Awards are announced at the end of January.

Website: www.iie.org/fulbright

UST Contact: Dr. Sarah Stevenson, email: sastevenson@stthomas.edu

Gates Millennium Scholars & Fellowship

The Gates Millennium Scholars initiative is aimed at increasing the number of low-income African Americans, Asian Pacific Americans (Filipino, Chinese, Korean, South Asians, Japanese, Vietnamese, Cambodian, Laotian, Hmong, Thai, Pacific Islanders), American Indians/Alaska Natives, and Hispanic Americans enrolling in and completing undergraduate and graduate degree programs. Funded by a grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, this award program will help reflect the diverse society in which we live by expanding access and opportunity to higher education.

Amount of Award: Awards are calculated by the Gates Millennium Scholars based on financial need, but can be used for tuition, fees, books, and living expenses.

Eligibility: Candidates must be a citizen, national or legal permanent resident of the United States and a member of one of the ethnic groups named above; have attained a cumulative GPA of 3.3 on an un-weighted 4.0 scale or have earned a GED; will be enrolling for the first time at a U.S. accredited college or university as a full-time degree-seeking, first year student, must meet the Federal Pell Grant eligibility criteria; have demonstrated leadership ability through participation in community service, extracurricular activities or other activities.

Application Deadline: Mid-January. Awards are announced on or before May 1.

Website: www.gmsp.org

UST Contact: Dr. Kevin Theissen, email: kmtheissen@stthomas.edu

George J. Mitchell Scholarship

Scholars will be eligible to attend institutions of higher learning in Ireland, including the seven universities in the Republic of Ireland and the two universities in Northern Ireland, for one academic year of post-graduate study.

Amount of Award: The universities participating in the Mitchell Scholarships are generously contributing tuition and room for the Scholar. In addition, each Scholar will receive a stipend to cover other necessary expenses for the term of study. The US-Ireland Alliance will assist successful applicants with their traveling expenses to and from Ireland and Northern Ireland.

Eligibility: Applicants must be U.S. citizens, aged eighteen or over but not yet thirty on October 1 in the year of application. They must also have academic standing sufficient to assure completion of a Bachelor's degree before they begin study under the Mitchell Scholarship.

Application Deadline: October 6. Finalists are invited to Washington, D.C. for an interview in late November. Awards are announced in December. Note: St. Thomas' internal deadline for applying for the required institutional endorsement is two weeks before the scholarship deadline. It is recommended that you make arrangements with the St. Thomas contact by September 7 at the latest.

Website: www.us-irelandalliance.org/scholarships.html

UST Contact: Dr. William Cavanaugh, email: wtcavanaugh@stthomas.edu
(Updated March 2008)

Hmong National Development, Inc. Fellowship

Hmong National Development, Inc. is a national non-profit organization working with Hmong communities and public and private agencies in the United States to promote economic self-sufficiency and education opportunities, economic and resource development, and cultural adaptability vital for the well being, growth, and full participation of Hmong in society.

The HND Educational Scholarship Program was created to promote higher education within the Hmong community and is the only scholarship directed towards providing financial assistance to Hmong students across the nation. HND strives to support and encourage Hmong students to achieve academic excellence, become leaders in their chosen professions, and advocates of their local communities. Since the conception of the Educational Scholarship Program in 2001, HND has awarded over 50 scholarships to graduating Hmong high school seniors, undergraduate and graduate students.

Amount of Award: Unknown at this time.

Eligibility: Successful applicants must be Hmong, demonstrate financial need, complete a HND Scholarship Package; have applied to, have been accepted into or are enrolled full-time in an accredited graduate degree program; and submit one letter of recommendation.

Internships may also be available.

Application Deadline: Applications must be postmarked before December 1. Announcement of exact due date is in mid-September.

Website: www.hndinc.org

No UST contact.

Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholarship

Scholars may use the award to attend any accredited graduate school in the United States or abroad to pursue any graduate or professional degree, in fields from fine arts to medicine to history.

Amount of Award: The amount and duration of awards will vary by student, based on the cost of attendance and length of the program as well as other scholarships or grants received. The maximum award per student is $50,000 per year, and the maximum length is six years.

Eligibility: To be eligible to compete in the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Graduate Scholarship Program, a candidate must at a minimum:

- Be nominated by his or her undergraduate institution.
- Be a current student at an accredited U.S. college or university with senior status (graduate by the time of fall following academic year) or have graduated from an accredited four year U.S. university within the past 5 years.
- Have a cumulative college grade point average of 3.50 or better on a 4.0 scale.
- Plan to begin first graduate degree program full-time in fall 2009.
- Have unmet financial need.
- Not have previously been nominated for the Jack Kent Cooke Graduate Scholarship.

Application Deadline: Nominated applications must be received on or before the deadline of early March. Internal campus deadline for UST is late February, 2009.

Website: www.jkcf.org

UST Contact: Dr. Michael C. Jordan, email: mcjordan@stthomas.edu

James Madison Memorial Fellowships

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation, a federally endowed program designed to strengthen instruction about the Constitution in the nation's schools, awards fellowships for master's-level study of the framing of the U.S. Constitution.

Amount of Award: Fellowships carry a maximum stipend of $24,000 (for up to two years of full-time study for college graduates), which is used to cover the costs of tuition, required fees, books, and room and board.

Eligibility: Fellows must be a U.S. citizen or U.S. national, be a teacher or plan to become a teacher of American history, American government or social studies at the secondary school level (grades 7-12), enroll in graduate programs leading to master's degrees in American history, political science or education offered by any accredited university. Participation in an accredited four-week summer institute held at Georgetown University on the principles, framing, ratification and implementation of the Constitution and Bill of Rights is required of all fellows, normally during the summer after the commencement of study. Fellows must possess a bachelor's degree or receive one no later than August 31 of the year in which you are applying and also wait at least 3 years from the time that any previous graduate degree was awarded before applying for the fellowship.

Application Deadline: The deadline for applications is March 1. Awards are announced in April.

Website: www.jamesmadison.com

No UST contact.

Lilly Fellows Program in the Humanities and Fine Arts

Nominees must intend to enter a Ph.D., M.F.A., Th.D., or equivalent program at the school of their choice that will lead to a teaching career in humanities or the arts within the academy. Nominees should also demonstrate a desire to explore the connections between Christianity and higher education and entertain the possibility of teaching at a Protestant or Catholic school. In addition, nominees must meet the following eligibility requirements:

- Nominees must have earned or be in the process of earning a baccalaureate degree from a Lilly Fellows Program Institution. (UST is included.)
- Eligibility is open to graduating seniors graduating, or to anyone having received a baccalaureate from a network institution after April, 2004.
- Nominees must be U.S. Citizens.
- In order to receive this Fellowship, nominees must have been accepted into a Ph.D., M.F.A., Th.D., or equivalent program by June 1 of the year they plan to start graduate school.
- Eligible disciplines are: art; art history; creative writing; history; interdisciplinary studies; languages and literatures; music; music history; philosophy; religion; rhetoric; theater history; and theater arts.
- Finalists must attend an Interview Conference in the spring of their senior year and must attend an Inaugural Conference in the August preceding graduate study.

For application procedures: http://www.lillyfellows.org/graduate_fellows_application.htm

For more information, contact us via e-mail: lillyfellows.program@valpo.edu or call 219-464-5317.

Applicants must be nominated by the University of St. Thomas. St. Thomas can nominate up to 3 students each year. Please contact Dr. Don J. Briel for information about the nomination procedure.

UST Contact: Dr. Don J. Briel, e-mail: djbriel@stthomas.edu

National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships

Fellowships are awarded for graduate study leading to research-based master's or doctoral degrees in fields supported by the NSF, including the mathematical, physical, biological, behavioral and social sciences; engineering; the history of science and the philosophy of science; and for research-based Ph.D. degrees in science education.

Women in Engineering and Computer and Information Science Awards will be offered to encourage women to undertake graduate study in engineering and computer and information science.

Amount of Award: $30,000 stipend for twelve-month tenures; cost-of-education allowance of $10,500 per tenure year; and a $1,000 International Research Travel Allowance.

Eligibility: Applicants must be United States citizens or nationals, or permanent resident aliens of the United States. Fellowships are intended for individuals who are in the early stages of their graduate study (no more than 12 months of graduate study) in science, mathematics, or engineering.

Application Deadline: Early November. Awards are announced in March of the following year.

Website: www.nsfgrfp.org

UST Contact: Dr. Kevin Theissen, email: kmtheissen@stthomas.edu

NSEP David L. Boren Graduate Fellowships

A one-to-two semester full fellowship to allow graduate students to pursue specialization in area and language study in languages and cultures deemed critical to US national security; available for domestic or overseas study.

Award Amounts:

For International fellowships: $12,000 maximum per academic semester for up to two semesters ($24,000 total maximum).

For Domestic Study: maximum of $12,000 (intended for language and area studies which enhance a degree program).

*The maximum award is $30,000 for both the International and Domestic fellowships.

Eligibility: U.S. citizen.
Enrolled in or applying to a graduate degree program at an accredited U.S. college or university located within the U.S.
Be willing to enter into a service agreement.

Deadlines: End of January

How to apply: Download application and send directly to the Academy for Educational Development: www.aed.org/nsep.

Selection Criteria: Demonstrated academic excellence.
Comprehensive, clear and feasible proposal.
A plan to develop, maintain or advance language competence.
Evidence of ability to adapt to a different cultural environment.
Integration of the proposed program into the applicant's academic field and career goals.
Consideration of the applicant's proposed study to U.S. national security and expressed commitment to federal service.

Website: www.borenawards.org/boren_fellowship

Please contact the IEC at 651.962.6450 with any questions or for additional information.

UST Contact: Dr. Sarah Stevenson, email: sastevenson@stthomas.edu

Remick Fellowship Program

In partnership with Saint Mary's University of Minnesota and its Hendrickson Institute for Ethical Leadership, the Remick Fellowship Program will provide financial resources for young scholars preparing to enter the teaching profession in order to create an incentive for them to become educators in Catholic schools.

The goals of the Remick Fellows Program are: to develop ethical leadership skills in Catholic educators; to provide Catholic educators with the skills to enhance character development in their students and to teach their students ethical leadership skills; to develop and promote an educational paradigm based on character development and ethical leadership skills for Catholic educators throughout the United States; and to provide an annual conference with the purpose of creating a community of Catholic educators skilled in and dedicated to character development and ethical leadership in Catholic schools.

Amount of Award: The fellowship provides full tuition, fees, room and board in appropriate housing on the Winona Campus of Saint Mary's University.

Eligibility: Remick Fellows participate in a one-year program which provides the opportunity for those who have earned a bachelor's degree in a variety of fields to acquire teacher licensure in Early Adolescence/Young Adult (grades 5-12) in the disciplines of mathematics, social studies, modern foreign languages, communication and language arts, life science, physical science, and music, and a Master of Arts in Instruction (MAI) degree. Candidates must meet the basic requirements for the MAI program and be accepted into the program by the School of Education of Saint Mary's University; have a minimum 3.0 GPA in the undergraduate degree; and have demonstrated leadership skills.

Application Deadline: April 15 of the year prior to matriculation in the Masters program.

Website: www.smumn.edu

No UST contact.

Rhodes Scholarships

The Rhodes Scholarships were established in 1903 by Cecil Rhodes, who dreamed of bettering the world through the diffusion of leaders motivated to serve their contemporaries, trained in the contemplative life of the mind, and broadened by their acquaintance with one another and by their exposure to cultures different from their own. Rhodes hoped that this plan of bringing able students from throughout the English-speaking world and beyond to study at Oxford University would aid in the promotion of international understanding and peace. Each year, 32 U.S. citizens are among more than 90 Rhodes Scholars worldwide who take up degree courses at Oxford University.

Amount of Award: The stipend of a Rhodes Scholarship consists of a direct payment to the Scholar's College of all tuition fees (such as matriculation, tuition, laboratory fees, and certain other set charges), plus a maintenance allowance. Appointment to a Rhodes Scholarship is made for two years in the first instance with a possible third year if the Scholar's record at Oxford and plan of study warrant such an award.

Eligibility: An applicant must be a citizen of the United States (pending application for citizenship does not qualify a person to apply), by October 1 in the year of application, have passed the eighteenth and not have passed the twenty-fourth birthday, and must have achieved academic standing sufficiently advanced to assure completion of a Bachelor's degree before October 1 of the year following application.

Application Deadline: The deadline is in early October each year; check the website, as the exact date changes from year to year. Awards are announced in early December. Note: St. Thomas' internal deadline for applying for the required institutional endorsement is two weeks before the scholarship deadline. It is recommended that you make arrangements with the St. Thomas contact by September 7 at the latest.

Website: www.rhodesscholar.org

UST Contact: Dr. William Cavanaugh, email: wtcavanaugh@stthomas.edu
(Updated March 2008)

Spencer Foundation Dissertation Fellowships

The Spencer Foundation seeks to encourage a new generation of scholars from a wide range of disciplines to undertake research relevant to the improvement of education.

Amount of Award: Approximately 30 non-renewable fellowships of $25,000 will be awarded to support completion of the dissertation. This amount must be expended within two years of the award.

Eligibility: Applicants must be candidates for the doctoral degree in any field of study at a graduate school in the U.S., although they need not be U.S. citizens. Dissertation topics must concern education.

Application Deadline: Fellowship applicants may request or download current application forms at any time between April and October. Students must submit their completed applications by an early November date designated each year. Awards are announced the following April for fellowships that take effect in June.

Website: www.spencer.org

No UST contact.

Tylenol Scholarships & Fellowships

Scholarships are for higher education to students who demonstrate leadership in community activities and school activities and major in areas that will lead to careers in health-related fields.

Amount of Award: Ten $10,000 scholarships and 150 $1,000 scholarships.

Eligibility: Candidates must be attending an undergraduate or graduate course of study in the fall. This includes those students currently enrolled in an undergraduate or graduate course of study and has one or more years of school remaining.

Application Deadline: May 15, winners notified mid-July and funds delivered August.

Website: www.tylenolscholarship.com

UST Contact: Dr. Kevin Theissen, email: kmtheissen@stthomas.edu

Truman Scholarships

The Harry S Truman Scholarship Foundation awards merit-based scholarships to college students who wish to attend graduate school or law school in preparation for careers in government or elsewhere in public service oriented non-profit organizations. Scholars may attend graduate schools in the United States or in foreign countries.

The Foundation defines public service as employment in: government at any level, uniformed services, public-interest organizations, non-governmental research and/or educational organizations, public and private schools, and public-service oriented non-profit organizations such as those whose primary purposes are to help needy or disadvantaged persons or to protect the environment.

Amount of Award: Total award of up to $30,000 to be used in graduate studies. Scholars in one-year or two-year graduate programs are eligible to receive $13,500 per year. Scholars in J.D. programs are eligible to receive $13,500 for the second year and $13,500 at the start of the third year's second semester if they present evidence that they will enter public service immediately upon graduation or completion of any clerkship. Scholars in longer graduate programs are eligible to receive $9,000 per year for three years. Scholars attend 10-week Washington Summer Institute following graduation.

Eligibility: Candidates are nominated by their current institution of higher education. Nominees must be a full-time junior-level student at a four-year institution pursuing a bachelor's degree during the year of application. "Junior" here means a student who plans to continue full-time undergraduate study and who expects to receive a baccalaureate degree between December and August of the year following the year of application. The nominee may be a student in his or her third year of collegiate study who expects to graduate during the year of application. The nominee must be committed to a career in public service as defined above, be in the upper quarter of his/her class, and be a citizen of the United States or a United States national from American Samoa or the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands.

Application Deadline: All application materials must be submitted to the faculty representative by the January or February date posted. The list of Finalists will be posted on the Website around mid-February and interviews occur early to mid-March. Application is made in a student's junior year; however, the scholarship is to be used after graduation.

Website: www.truman.gov

UST contact: Dr. Steven Hoffman, email: smhoffman@stthomas.edu

U.S. Army and Navy Health Professions Scholarships

Scholarships are available from the U.S. Army and Navy for graduate study in medicine, dentistry, and optometry.

Army: The F. Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP) will pay most of the medical school expenses for up to four years, and more benefits after graduation.

Navy: The Navy Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP) will pay the expenses of a student enrolled in a school of medicine, osteopathy, dentistry or optometry in the United States or Puerto Rico. Dental students can apply for the General Practice Residency or Advanced Education in General Dentistry programs upon completion of dental school.

Amount of Award:

Army: 100% tuition, books and fees, plus a generous monthly stipend of $1900 for 10-1/2 months of each school year and the full pay and allowances of an officer during the remaining 1-1/2 months. After medical school, the physician is promoted to captain and is required to serve a minimum of three years, including a one-year internship as an active duty physician in the Army. Qualifying medical and dental students are eligible for a $20,000 sign-on bonus.

Navy: 100% tuition, books and equipment and fees of the medical, dental or optometry education, plus a monthly stipend. Upon graduation, the student is required to serve one year of active duty as a Navy medical, dental or Medical Service Corps officer for each year of scholarship participation, with a minimum of three years' service.

Eligibility: Candidates must be accepted into a school of medicine, osteopathy, dentistry or optometry in the United States or Puerto Rico, be a U.S. citizen with a baccalaureate degree from an accredited school and maintain full-time status during length of program.

Application Deadline: Contact the recruiting officers for opening and closing dates:

Program Information

U.S. Army Health Care

Phones: 612-378-7849
800-235-8159
800-USA-Army

Chief, Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Code 512

Department of the Navy

Washington, DC 20372-5300

Phones: 612-378-0952
800-344-4312
800-USA-Navy

Websites: www.goarmy.com/amedd/hpsp.jsp
www.navy.com./careers/healthcare/physicians

UST Contact: Dr. Kevin Theissen, email: kmtheissen@stthomas.edu

Women's Transportation Seminar Scholarship & Fellowship

The Women's Transportation Seminar (WTS) is a national organization of transportation professionals with more than 3,000 members. The WTS is committed to excellence in the transportation industry and provides support to students seeking future careers in transportation.

Amount of Award: Two $2,000 scholarships and one $500 scholarship offered by the Minnesota chapter of the WTS.

Eligibility: Female students, either undergraduate or graduate, currently enrolled in a degree program in a transportation-related field, (such as transportation engineering, planning, finance or logistics), with a GPA of 3.0 or higher, and who plan to pursue a career in transportation or a transportation-related field, are eligible.

Application Deadline: Applications must be postmarked by November 20. Awards are announced in mid-January.

Website: www.wtsinternational.org/chapters.aspx?id=7028

No UST contact.

The William E. Simon Fellowship for Nobel Purpose

“The Simon Fellowship is an unrestricted cash grant that will be awarded to those graduating college seniors who have demonstrated passion, dedication, a high capacity for self-direction, and originality in pursuit of a goal that will strengthen civil society.” (Statement from the Intercollegiate Studies Institute brochure for the William E. Simon Fellowship.)

Amount of Award: ISI awards three Fellowships for Noble Purpose.

- Top award $40,000
- Two additional fellows will be chosen each year to receive grants of $5,000 each.
- Over the next five years, ISI will award $250,000 to graduating college seniors who are named Simon Fellows.

Eligibility: Graduating college seniors.

Application Deadline: Forward nominations to ISI by mid-January. The first Simon Fellows will be selected and announced in April.

Email nomination to: simon@isi.org

Website: www.isi.org/programs/fellowships/simon.html

No UST contact.