

Athletic Department FAQs

1. How do I buy tickets for St. Thomas athletic games?

“All current St. Thomas undergraduate students have the opportunity to claim a free student ticket to the following home athletic events: football, soccer, volleyball, hockey, and basketball. On game day, students are required to claim their free student ticket and access the ticket via a cell phone to be scanned for entry. To claim a free student ticket, students must activate their UST athletics student account on tommiesports.com by using their UST student number. Once students have activated their student account and created a password, they can login into their student account on tommiesports.com. Student ticket information will be sent out in August prior to the start of the 2023 football season. Please reach out to the St. Thomas Athletics Ticket Office at tickets@stthomas.edu with any questions.”

2. Does St. Thomas have intramural sports I can join?

The University of St. Thomas offers numerous intramural sport teams that anyone can join! Different intramural sports are offered within different seasons of the school year. Sports include: cornhole, soccer, spikeball, football, basketball and volleyball. Registration for these sports can be found at the University of St. Thomas Intramurals webpage. You can sign up individually or with friends to form a team. Intramurals are a great way to meet other Tommies and have fun while getting some exercise. All intramural sports take place on campus amongst other St. Thomas students.

3. Can I work for the athletic department?

There are a variety of jobs within the athletic department for students to apply. Ranging from athletic event staff, AARC and McCarthy desk staff, broadcasting, concessions, assisting with game day stats, announcing, social media, and more. Check out the student employment page to find the current job openings in the athletic department.

4. What are club sports teams?

Club sports are competitive student clubs that operate somewhere between the varsity and intramural level. Club teams are affiliated with a national governing body and compete against other colleges and universities at the club level while practicing 2-3 times a week. Club Sports are organized through the Division of Student Affairs. More information about Club Sports please visit the website.
