

create[space] FAQs

1. What is the create[space]?

The create[space] is our creativity and innovation center. It's a space that allows our St. Thomas community to come together and explore their creative side.

2. Where is the create[space] located?

The create[space] is located on the first floor of the Anderson Student Center.

3. How do I access the create[space]?

create[space] is open to all members of the St. Thomas community, all materials/tools/machines inside the create[space] are free for everyone.

4. How can I learn more?

Get on social media and give @USTcreatespace a follow. It's the best/easiest way of continuing to be connected with create[space] and be in the know about workshops/events/news.