

Entrepreneurship Minor

Gain a Creative Edge

Being able to think like an entrepreneur is a valuable asset, whether you're starting your own business or working for a large organization. A minor in entrepreneurship gives you the skills, knowledge and mindset to thrive in any industry. The St. Thomas Minor in Entrepreneurship is open to St. Thomas undergraduate students not currently earning a business degree. Through our engaging, practical curriculum, you'll learn to:

- Identify and analyze new opportunities
- Take a creative approach to problem-solving
- Be action-oriented, ready to seize opportunities that create real value.

These skills are important in all types of organizations, from small start-ups to large corporate settings.
