Core Integrations & Flags: 2020-2021 Undergraduate Catalog – p. 2

Click here to view a list of approved Integration in the Humanities courses

Integrations in the Humanities
This core area includes many course options (200 level or above). A student may not use an IH course to simultaneously satisfy other core areas (listed on the flip side of this page), but IH courses may hold flags (see below). A student may take both in their major only if they have a second major. Students must take two courses:

- Course 1: _____
- Course 2: _____

FLAGGED COURSES

A flag is an additional attribute attached to a course. Flags may attach to courses in Integrations in the Humanities, major/minor courses, or electives. Some flags attach to whole course numbers; others only to specific sections. There are four kinds of flags:

- Diversity, Inclusion, and Social Justice
- Global Perspectives
- Writing Across the Curriculum, and
- Signature Work.

There are specific rules for which courses may carry each flag; you can use Class Finder to search for flagged classes.

Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice

Students must take four credits of coursework that carries the DISJ Flag. A DISJ course is taught at the 200 level or above. It cannot be used to satisfy any core area except Integrations in the Humanities. It can be flagged for Writing Across the Curriculum or Signature Work, but must be separate from Global Perspectives. The course can overlap with major or minor courses.

DISJ Course(s): _____

Global Perspectives

Students must take four credits of coursework that carries the GP flag, or a university-recognized study abroad course with at least 20 days spent outside the U.S. A Global Perspectives course is taught at the 100 level or above. It cannot be used to satisfy any core area other than Integrations in the Humanities. It can be flagged for Writing Across the Curriculum or Signature Work, but must be separate from Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice. The course can overlap with major or minor courses.

- GP Course: _____
- or
- Study Abroad: _____

Writing Across the Curriculum

Students must take four to five courses, depending on whether their Writing to Learn coursework is completed through one 4-credit course, or two 2-credit courses.

Two Writing Intensive (indicated by “W” in section number. Only one may be an ENGL course.)

- Writing Intensive #1 _____
- Writing Intensive #2 _____

4 credits Writing to Learn (indicated by “L” in section number).

- Writing to Learn 4-credit course

Or

- Writing to Learn 2-credit course #1

- Writing to Learn 2-credit course #2

One Writing in the Discipline (indicated by “D” in section number).

- Writing in the Discipline course

Signature Work (Capstone)

Early in their time at St. Thomas, students should begin collecting and saving samples of their work conducted in courses or non-course activities for their capstone Signature Work e-portfolio (ex: research reports/papers, videos or podcasts created by student, recordings of performances, documentation of service or internship activities, academic essays, study abroad assignments).

Students must earn a minimum of 80 credits prior to beginning the Signature Work course. It must be on the 300 level or above. It may be major specific. It may overlap with Integrations in the Humanities, Diversity, Inclusion, & Social Justice, or with Global Perspectives.
