JUSTICE AND PEACE STUDIES: Generalist - BA

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>First Year</th>
<th>Sophomore</th>
<th>Junior</th>
<th>Senior</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Semester 1</td>
<td>JPST 280</td>
<td>JPST 365</td>
<td>THEO 421</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Semester 2</td>
<td>JPST 250</td>
<td>JPST 355</td>
<td>JPST 375</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Descriptive analysis course</td>
<td>Best time for semester abroad or HECUA</td>
<td>Major elective</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

REQUIREMENTS FOR MAJOR

- JPST 250 Introduction to Justice and Peace Studies
- JPST 280 Active Nonviolence
- JPST 355 Policy Analysis & Advocacy
- JPST 365 Leadership for Social Justice
- JPST 375 Conflict Analysis & Transformation
- JPST 473 Vocational Internship Seminar (0 cr.)
- THEO 421 Theologies of Justice and Peace - Based on student career interests, other THEO 400 classes may substitute for this course, with permission of program director.

Plus one course in descriptive analysis:
See Undergraduate Catalog for appropriate courses

Plus one course in normative analysis:
See Undergraduate Catalog for appropriate courses

Plus:
Additional courses to be selected with the approval of the program director, to bring the total number of credits to 44 (40 for a double major).

Students only majoring in Justice and Peace Studies are strongly encouraged to take a “methods” from a department that uses approaches relevant to the way they are choosing to complete the JPST major. The purpose of this recommendation is to strengthen abilities in data interpretation, manipulation and generation. Possibilities include: GEOG 221; POLS 205; SOCI 210; SOCI 220.