

Apply for Gessner Scholarship

(Sociology and Criminal Justice majors and minors are eligible to apply)

Scholarship Amount: Scholarship award amounts vary each year, and range from $1,000-$5,000.

Jack Gessner was a member of the Department of Sociology and Criminal Justice from 1985-1991. He died while serving as department chair. His family set up a memorial scholarship that is awarded every spring for the following academic year. To be eligible to receive the scholarship, you must:

- Be a UST student with a declared major or minor in sociology or criminal justice.
- Have completed two sociology/criminal justice course at UST.

To apply for the scholarship, you will need to:

- complete the attached application (hard copies are also available in the Sociology Resource Room, OEC 438)
- provide your academic transcript (unofficial transcripts are acceptable),
- complete a one-page, single-spaced essay on how you think sociology will be useful later in your life.

Application forms and essays must be received in hard copy form by Dr. William J. Kinney, OEC 446, by 12:00 noon, Tuesday, April 10th, 2018. No late applications will be accepted.

Please direct any questions to Dr. Kinney (wjkinney@stthomas.edu).