Reminiscence and Redemption: A Study of Christian Spiritual Memoirs

Presented by: Mara Morley, University of St. Thomas
Faculty Mentor: Dr. Cecilia Robinson-Riegler, University of St. Thomas
Neutrophil recruitment al., 2006; Cunha et al, 2
Violence

1. Triangulated violence - perpetrated by an individual or group directed upon those who they are in conflict with. (Ulman, 2001)

2. Indirect violence - unnatural conditions that either promote conflict or disallow an individual or group from attaining basic human needs. (Goffin, 1964)

3. Violence amidst perceived peace.
Culture and Sexual Identity: An Analysis through the Perceptions of Hmong American Minnesotans

G. Lee Xiong, University of St. Thomas, MN

Faculty Mentor: Pa Der Vang, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, School of Social Work, St. Catherine University, MN

E. F. McNair Post-Baccalaureate Achievement Program