

The Department of Geography and Environmental Studies and the Environmental Studies Governance Committee are pleased to announce the annual University of St. Thomas Environmental Studies Scholarship. The Committee will be awarding scholarships totaling $5000. A student must have completed three or more courses in the ENVR major by the end of the current semester to be eligible for an award. Students who have received a scholarship in the past ARE eligible for this year's award.

UST Environmental Studies Scholarship Application Form

For students majoring in Environmental studies who have had an outstanding record of academic achievement and involvement in environmental activities.

Name: _____ Student ID: _____

UST Overall GPA: _____ UST ENVR GPA: _____

Graduation Semester (Spring/Fall): _____ Year: _____

Please include:

- a) 750 word essay summarizing your reason(s) for choosing an Environmental Studies major, your coursework, relevant internships, research and/or presentations, and representative extra-curricular involvement (e.g., tutoring, clubs, committees, societies, volunteering). You may also include your current post-graduation educational/career plan.
- b) Faculty reference (name and e-mail only) who will attest to your qualifications.
- d) Copy of your current resume with GPA indicated.

Applications will be judged on academic quality, involvement, leadership.

Applications are due via e-mail to David Kelley, Chair of the department of Geography and Environmental Studies
dwkelley@stthomas.edu

by Midnight of March 13, 2017