University Taskforce on Violence Prevention & Response

The purpose of the University of St. Thomas Taskforce on Sexual Violence Prevention & Response is to evaluate and strengthen the University's efforts to prevent and respond to incidences of sexual violence (including sexual assault, rape, dating & domestic violence and stalking). A multi-stakeholder team will assess the University's prevention and response efforts. Using the latest public health research, expert guidance, and promising and emerging practices, this team will create an Implementation Plan aimed to strengthen the University's efforts.

The taskforce will use an evidence based framework, the Culture of Respect, to guide their initial efforts.
