OPEN YOUR EYES
TO YOUR POWER TO CHANGE LIVES

School of Law
UNIVERSITY OF ST. THOMAS
Minneapolis, Minnesota | 2019-20
GET MORE THAN A CAREER. GET A MISSION.

As a lawyer you will have the power to change lives. As a St. Thomas lawyer, you will change them for the better – whether you advocate for social justice, serve in the courts or legislature, or provide counsel to corporations.

St. Thomas gives you opportunities to start making an impact from day one. You’ll work side-by-side with your professors and serve clients through our 13 innovative legal clinics, while practicing lawyers and judges mentor you one-on-one through our award-winning Mentor Externship Program. Turns out, when bright, caring people put their energy toward advancing the common good, everyone wins.
WE’VE BUILT THE CASE FOR COLLABORATION

We’re more than a law school; we’re a community. That’s the St. Thomas difference. Here, you’re not just another bright and talented law student battling it out with your peers for the top spot in your class. St. Thomas Law offers an innovative law school experience where students are supportive, not competitive; our faculty are approachable, not stuffy; and our mentors, alumni and donors are fierce advocates for our graduates. Because we know that’s how our lawyers will succeed.

#7
St. Thomas is ranked seventh for Best Quality of Student Life by the Princeton Review for 2019
FIND YOUR VOICE. SPEAK YOUR TRUTH.

WHO WE ARE

Our Classrooms Are Open to Debate
Engaged and civil debate about the important issues of our time is a hallmark of our community, allowing us to tackle themes in the classroom that may not be covered in traditional legal education. Here, your views are respected. We are intentional about building an inclusive and diverse law school that is oriented toward cultivating a strong sense of belonging and support within our school and promoting justice in our world.

All Are Welcome Here
We are a law school founded in the Catholic intellectual tradition, which means we welcome students of all faith traditions, nationalities, races, ages and genders, and we create opportunities for you to deepen your purpose and explore who you are. Our law school isn’t just turning out lawyers; we’re here to help you find your place in a bigger story.

You’ll complete at least 50 hours of public service, including pro bono legal work and hands-on help for those in need.

“We aren’t afraid to speak openly about social justice, and we also aren’t afraid to discuss the most important contemporary topics in an open, civil way. Truth comes from that.”

-St. Thomas Law Professor Mark Osler
We’re committed to educating well-rounded lawyers, and among the strengths of our program is a vast catalog of courses that can be tailored to fit your professional aspirations. Whether your passion is corporate law, civil litigation, dispute resolution, criminal law, family law, public interest law, international law or one of the many other specialty areas of law, the faculty and staff at St. Thomas Law will support you in selecting the courses that fit best with your personal and professional goals.

For those who have had the great privilege of observing and living it out for three years of our lives, the St. Thomas law school mission is now a lens through which we see the world. It is the pull to a higher calling – one where service to others and the ultimate search for perpetuating good in the world comes before all else.

-Enin Gross '09 J.D., shareholder, Erstad & Riemer, P.A.
Get ready to stand out as a lawyer who stands up for what matters. As a St. Thomas Law student, you have opportunities to tackle legal challenges well before you graduate. You’ll be immersed in critical legal issues through our clinics, working alongside faculty experts and motivated classmates. You’ll apply what you learn—and learn even more because of it.

LEGAL CLINICS

With 13 legal clinics to choose from, you will have broad social impact in an area that inspires you. Our intensive clinics are one reason we rank No. 2 in the nation for practical training (National Jurist, 2019).

Federal Appellate Clinic

In each of the past five years, students working in the Appellate Clinic have won major victories in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. Lindsey Rowland ’18 won the 2019-2020 Supreme Court of the United States argument in línea, which was about a victim's right to counsel at sentencing. In each of the past five years, students working in the Appellate Clinic have won major victories in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit.

Bankruptcy Litigation Clinic

In the Bankruptcy Litigation Clinic, you will handle federal bankruptcy cases from beginning to end, drafting complaints, conducting discovery, participating in motion practice and representing clients at the trial.

Catholic Social Thought and the United Nations

This clinic integrates international law, Catholic social teaching and international relations, culminating in a one-week lobbying experience at the United Nations.

Community Justice Project

The Community Justice Project builds bridges with community stakeholders and solves problems in distressed communities. You will conduct intensive research into practical solutions to long-standing challenges such as police brutality and racial disparities in criminal justice and education.

Consumer Bankruptcy Clinic

In the Consumer Bankruptcy Clinic, you will learn the practical application of bankruptcy law by appearing in court and in front of bankruptcy judges, arguing motions, defending depositions, participating in settlement negotiations and counseling clients on litigation risks.

Criminal and Juvenile Defense Clinic

In the Criminal and Juvenile Defense Clinic, you will identify and combat systemic injustices in the criminal and juvenile justice systems through representation of individual clients accused of crimes.

Elder Law and Guardianship Alternatives Clinic

In the Elder Law and Guardianship Alternatives Clinic, you will provide legal services to seniors and persons with disabilities, as well as educate judges, attorneys, educators, social service providers and the general public about alternatives to guardianship, and engage in public policy advocacy.

Federal Commutations Clinic

The first of its kind in the country, the Federal Commutations Clinic serves a real need among federal inmates in a virtually unknown area of the law. You will provide guidance and assistance to inmates, and evaluate and prepare commutation petitions to be directed to the U.S. pardon attorney.

Immigration Appellate Clinic

In the Immigration Appellate Clinic, you will brief and argue appellate cases representing detainees and persons seeking asylum, many of whom had to represent themselves at trial.

Immigration Law Practice Group

In the Immigration Law Practice Group, you will represent immigrants seeking asylum as a result of persecution or a fear of persecution in their home countries, provide representation for those at detained master calendar hearings, and participate in immigrant-related advocacy projects on behalf of community organizations.

Nonprofit Organizations Clinic

This clinic helps nonprofit organizations get off the ground and develop a sustainable business model within a mission that promotes social and economic justice here and abroad.

Religious Liberty Appellate Clinic

The Religious Liberty Appellate Clinic offers you the chance to write appellate briefs, primarily amicus curiae briefs, in cases involving religious liberty, rights of conscience more generally and selected issues involving the protection of human life.

Trademark Clinic

In the Trademark Clinic, you will practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (PTO), counseling clients regarding trademark matters, and drafting and filing trademark applications, responses to PTO actions and other documents in trademark applications.

The Appellate Clinic brought the access-to-justice crisis to life, and helped me understand the everyday challenges that prisoners confront when pursuing their legal claims. The experience taught me how to be an effective appellate advocate but, more importantly, it taught me the importance of using my legal education to help underserved members of our society.

-Lindsey Rowland ’18
At St. Thomas, you can roll up your sleeves and work side by side with scholars who are making an impact on policy and research initiatives. We don’t shy away from controversial issues; we inspire in our students a passion for impact.

Largest Clemency Initiative in U.S. History

At the close of the Obama era, Professor Mark Osler, 11 law students and two alumni advocated to shorten the sentences of 105 federal inmates – and won. This highly successful effort became part of the largest clemency initiative in history.

Undefeated in the Ninth Circuit

In each of the past six years, students working in our Appellate Clinic have won a civil rights appeal on behalf of a prisoner in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. Working with Professor Gregory Sisk, students brief the appeal, and later argue before the court in San Francisco.

Bitcoin in the Classroom

Professor Wulf Kaal is the global leader in blockchain innovation in law and corporate governance. He places law students on the front line to answer crypto inquiries, and has helped make powerful connections that have turned into internships and permanent jobs.

Global Dispute Resolution

Professor Mariana H.C. Gonstead is leading efforts to establish dispute resolution across the developing world. Law students work alongside Gonstead as part of her International Dispute Resolution Research Network, a community of experts, stakeholders and academics from all corners of the globe who are dedicated to sharing knowledge in dispute prevention and resolution.
A PROFESSIONAL MENTOR FOR EVERY LAW STUDENT

We believe the law is about relationships. It is a social profession. That’s why a hallmark of our program since our founding has been our award-winning Mentor Externship Program, which focuses exclusively on building your professional network and preparing you to be a member of the legal community.

Through our mentor program, you will be paired with a legal professional matched to your interests during all three years of law school. You’ll gain work experience, develop relationships and learn to navigate the legal field while earning class credit.

Tommie Connections Around the World

More than 2,000 law alumni add value to our St. Thomas Law community, giving back to our students through mentoring, coaching moot court teams, offering career advice and networking, and working and volunteering in the community alongside you.

112,000 TOMMIES give you a huge network of alumni working around the world in fields from business to engineering to social work and the sciences.

1,700+ lawyers and judges have served our students as mentors.

I cannot overstate how meaningful the ability to build this relationship is, especially for someone like me who moved to downtown Minneapolis from a farm in the middle of nowhere with no connection to the legal community at all. Jeanine instills in me a confidence to become a future leader in the profession but also to stay true to myself, staying committed to the things outside of just the practice itself that make me who I am.

- Casey Matthiesen ’20, on her mentor, Chief Jeanine Hill, attorney with Meyer Nyus Tanick and chief judge for the Sokaogon Chippewa Community
GET MORE THAN A FOOT IN THE DOOR.
GET A LEG UP ON YOUR CAREER.

At St. Thomas Law, you’ll feel empowered to explore new pathways in your professional development. We’ll help you get connected to the Twin Cities legal community through credit-earning externships, and our Career and Professional Development team will ensure you’re ready to succeed when you graduate.

J.D. Compass
We’re innovators in the way we support and prepare our graduates to pass the bar exam and land meaningful jobs. Our J.D. Compass program will pair you with a strategist who will support you as you prepare to take the bar exam, and work with you one-on-one to help you secure full-time, long-term employment. We’re here to make sure you get the return on your investment.

EXTERNSHIPS
Semester-long externship courses take a deeper dive into a specific field or area of practice. You spend more than 150 hours developing skills and relationships in areas consistent with your career goals. Even better, externships can lead to job offers.

Judicial externs work under the direct supervision of a state or federal judge, providing legal research and analysis for various issues and cases pending before the court.

Fredrikson & Byron public interest externs engage in significant hands-on legal work in a field placement at a public interest organization or state or federal government agency.

Misdemeanor externs represent criminal defendants under the supervision of a practicing public defender and gain experience in interviewing clients, criminal procedure and negotiating cases.

Business externs receive pragmatic real-world experience in a corporate environment and engage in the core activities of client service at the intersection of law and business.

Compliance externs evaluate and complete compliance-related projects under the supervision of a compliance professional.

84% of our 2018 graduates were employed within 10 months of graduation in full-time jobs that required a J.D. or for which a J.D. provided a significant advantage.
Our location in the Twin Cities isn’t just a great place to be a law student; it’s a place you will want to consider staying. We have the perfect blend of natural beauty and urban sophistication, times two. While the law school is situated in downtown Minneapolis, its neighboring city, St. Paul, is home to our other University of St. Thomas campus. Each of the twin towns has its own unique character. And that means there’s more for you to explore.

I am in charge of satellite imagery analysis and reporting on North Korea’s prison camp system. I hope to improve the human rights situation by increasing public awareness of crimes committed by the Kim regime, documenting atrocities, pressuring the regime through human rights mechanisms and advocacy, and calling for the immediate closure of North Korea’s gulags.

The St. Thomas Law Intellectual Property Moot Court Team competed at nationals in 2018 after beating out students from the Midwest’s other law schools, including Northwestern University, the University of Minnesota, Michigan State University, the University of Iowa and others.

STRETCH YOURSELF BEYOND THE CLASSROOM

Compete to Sharpen Your Edge
Through moot court, trial advocacy and negotiations competitions, you will have opportunities to put your written and oral advocacy skills to the test on a national stage. Not only do these competitions give you exposure before distinguished members of the bench and bar, they also help you practice and perfect some of the most important skills employers seek.

Engage in Student Life
You can join any of 34 active student organizations led by an engaging team of student government leaders, including:
- Employment & Labor Law Association
- Sua Sponte Improv Comedy Troupe
- Student Intellectual Property Law Association
- Environmental Law Society
- Black Law Students Association
- Fightin’ Apostles Hockey Team

Study Around the World
St. Thomas Law students have studied abroad in many areas of the world, from South America to Europe to Asia and Africa. We also partner with Pázmány Péter Catholic University to offer a summer study abroad program in Budapest, Hungary.

Write for Academic Journals
As a law student, you can hone your legal research and writing skills in one of two journals: the University of St. Thomas Law Journal, the official academic journal of St. Thomas Law, or the University of St. Thomas Journal of Law and Public Policy, a publication focused on conservative legal thought. Both bring to light discussions of morality and social justice.

A LEGAL EDUCATION WITHIN REACH

SCHOLARSHIPS
St. Thomas Law is committed to making a high-quality legal education available to students by offering generous scholarships to qualified applicants.

At St. Thomas, your scholarship award sticks with you for every year of law school. We award scholarships to students who we believe will be a great fit for our community, whether they bring a strong academic background, a unique viewpoint or a dynamic experiential voice.

Dean’s Scholarship
The Dean’s Scholarship is awarded on behalf of the dean of the University of St. Thomas School of Law. Dean’s Scholars typically reflect strength in their academic performance and demonstrate a compelling fit with the mission of the School of Law. Dean’s Scholars receive a partial-tuition scholarship that can range up to 90% of tuition annually for the three years of law school.

Access to Justice Scholars Program
Our Access to Justice Scholars Program will help set you up for success as you pursue legal practice in a small-town or rural setting. Each Access to Justice Scholar is awarded a tuition discount of up to 75 percent. We work with the Minnesota State Bar Association to match each scholar with a mentor experienced in small-town or rural practice. To be considered for this program, you must submit a separate essay with your law school application, detailing your interest in and commitment to pursuing legal practice in a small-town or rural setting.

ADD A DEGREE OF DIFFERENCE
Taught by some of the best professors in the nation, our J.D. program combines practical skills, theoretical knowledge and comprehensive mentoring with a unique mission that inspires our commitments to social justice and professional ethics. Our J.D. program can be taken on a full-time or flexible scheduling basis, and can be completed in three years if taken full time.

While you earn your J.D., you may choose to diversify your career opportunities by pursuing a joint degree. We offer four programs that allow you to earn two advanced degrees in less time:

- J.D./Master of Business Administration (MBA)
- J.D./Master of Social Work (MSW)
- J.D./M.A. in Catholic Studies
- J.D./LL.M. in Organizational Ethics and Compliance

I knew I wanted to run a company someday. Honing my skills at St. Thomas Law has been a big part of my career in that it has afforded me the opportunity to quickly drive great results.

-Joe Johnson ’07 J.D./MBA, founding partner, Colonial Park Partners, financial consulting firm
